5 The Senior Surgeon may in the meantime be asked whether it would not be creating a bad precedent if on the ground of Seringapatam being unhealthy, the allowance is continued to the Sub-Assistant Surgeon though he does not continue in charge of the dispensary and whether Sub Assistant Surgeons attached to hospitals in some unhealthy places such as Shimoga &c. would not urge for a similar concession being shown to them.

Sir,

Med 67-16-6

With reference to Government order No. 5657-8/Med.52-16-6, dated, 1st March 1917, sanctioning the posting of an Assistant Surgeon to the Local Fund Dispensary at Seringapatam, I beg to submit that although the Sub Assistant Surgeon now in charge of the Dispensary will hereafter have to work under the Assistant Surgeon to be posted thereto, yet the former will practically be in charge during the frequent absence of the Assistant Surgeon on duty in the surrounding villages and will continue to unde[redacted] the hardships attendant on living in that unhealthy locality. I would not therefore, add to his hardships by depriving him of the charge allowance now being drawn by him.

I therefore request that the Sub Assistant Surgeon attached to the Local Fund Dispensary, Seringapatam may, as a special case, be allowed to draw the allowance of Rs.10/- (to be called Local allowance, if necessary) hitherto known as charge allowance.

Sir,

87

With reference to your docket No. 6479-Med. 67-16-, dated the 7th April 1917, I have the honor to state that the case in question is not like that of the Sub Assistant Surgeons doing duty in the District Headquarter Hospitals (including Shimoga) where it is not usual to grant a charge allowance.

The case of Seringapatam is more like that of Saklespur, where, on account of the itinerating ~~character~~ of the Assistant Surgeon in charge of the Local Fund Dispensary, the Government were pleased to attach a Sub Asst: Surgeon to the dispensary to help the Assistant Surgeon and to be in charge of the Dispensary during the latter's absence on itineration and this Sub Assistant Surgeon was given a local allowance of Rs. 20/- equal to a Malnad charge allowance (vide G.O.No. 1929-39/Med 24-13-118 R 20.8.14

Under the circumstances the grant of the proposed local allowance to the Sub Assistant Surgeon at Seringapatam cannot create a bad precedent.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
